North & South - The Brothers War

Photographs by Kristoffersen

A unique exhibit of American Civil War photography available in two formats.

Exhibition A: Fully immersive version using canvas wall size images paired with period objects from your own/private collection and/or

Exhibition B: Fifty framed and matted photographs

In remembrance of the upcoming Sesquicentennial of the American Civil War and the growing participation of thousands of weekend soldiers in Civil War Battle reenactments, KMW exhibitions is proud to present a visual experience that brings history alive. In juxtaposing Kristoffersen's gritty and powerful images with historical Civil War objects, this exhibit will entertain and educate students, museum visitors, and learned historians alike.

The full exhibit will be on show at the Tennessee State Museum in Nashville, Spring 2013 and open to the public for 3 months.
Both versions of the exhibit are available for rental from Fall 2011.

Exhibition A: 50 Sepia toned prints, matted and framed (30 in. x 40 in.) - 250 linear ft. approx. required

Exhibition B: Exhibition A + 25 Canvas Wallpaper images (10 ft. x 14 ft. each) - additional 350 linear ft. approx. required (total 600 linear ft.)

- All objects and cases are to be provided by renting venue
- Educational packages are available
- Full merchandising range of products available including book/catalog
- For rental fee and further information please contact: exhibits@kmwstudio.com

Kristoffersen, a noted photographer of Americana, has over a period of years documented many Civil War reenactments and gatherings. Through modern photographic technology and his knowledge of history, Kristoffersen has documented the realistic "living theater" of the Civil War reenactment.
